Online submission form

Submissions are accepted via the online submission form (<https://app.oxfordabstracts.com/stages/1776/submitter>) only. First, you will be directed to register for an Oxford Abstracts account. If you have submitted an abstract for ISPO 2019, you already have an account and can log into this account if you remember these details – email address is mandatory, password can be reset.

Once you have registered or logged in, you can make your submission by completing all mandatory fields in the online submission form. If mandatory fields are left incomplete and/or a word count exceeds the permitted limit, your submission will be marked as 'incomplete' and you need to edit and resubmit it prior to the submission deadline. Any submission that is incomplete by the closing date will not be reviewed.

Language

Submissions are accepted in English only.

Presentation category

During online submission, the presentation category is to be selected from the following options:

- Free Paper (oral) or Poster presentation
- Poster presentation only

If you require clarification of the session formats, please review the descriptions on the following page. The Scientific Committee reserves the right to assign a submission to a different presentation category if it is deemed more suitable.

Session formats

Free Paper Sessions (FP): A free paper is a professional communication describing a technique, case study, case series, clinical trial, systematic review, experiment or qualitative research delivered as an oral podium presentation during the congress. Abstracts of free papers are reviewed by a panel of experts to verify relevance, quality and innovation.

Posters: A poster may describe a technique, case study, case series, clinical trial, systematic review, experiment or qualitative research. By comparison with free papers, a poster may present preliminary results or works in progress. Abstracts of poster presentations are reviewed by a panel of experts to verify relevance for delegates.

Congress topics

The programme will be organised by topics that are of interest to the international P&O community. During online submission, the submitter will be asked to select the primary and secondary topics applicable to their Free Paper / Poster.

The Scientific Committee reserves the right to assign a submission to a different topic if it is deemed more suitable.

The title of the Abstract should concisely reflect the content. Please enter the title in Title Case (use capital letters for the important words or proper nouns), maximum of 20 words.

Session chairs

The Scientific Committee is recruiting two session chairs for each of the Free Paper Sessions. During online submission, the submitter is required to consent to publication of the submitted abstract. The submitter is responsible for receiving consent from all authors before completing a submission.

Conflict of interest disclosure

During online submission, the submitter will be asked to disclose any conflict of interest on behalf of each author. Notifications will be distributed by Friday, 21 May 2021.

Presentation information

Abstracts accepted for Free Paper (oral) presentation will be presented during Free Paper Sessions, which are scheduled for 75 minutes. Each Free Paper Session consists of 7 presentations of 10 minutes each. This timeframe includes presenter introductions, presentations and two to three minutes for questions from the audience/discussion.

Abstracts accepted for Poster presentation will be presented as traditional paper posters in the exhibit hall.

A number of Best Paper and Poster Prizes are available. Recipients will be identified by the Scientific Committee based on presentations at the congress.

Presentations should not be specific to a particular brand of product. However, they may deal with a generic (non-branded) range of products.

Details of the on-site presentation will be communicated to the submitter closer to the congress. The submitter is responsible for ensuring that these details are shared with the presenter(s).
