DESCRIPTION

Day trip to Tequila from Guadalajara (schedule below)

- Pickup and drop-off at Barcelo hotel (Av. De las Rosas No. 2965 just across from Expo Guadalajara)
- See breath taking views of UNESCO World Heritage-listed agave fields
- Visit the picturesque town of Tequila with a professional bilingual guide (English and Spanish)
- Tour the famous Jose Cuervo distillery and learn how tequila is made
- Enjoy several tequila tastings at the world-famous distillery, food and drinks included

During your air-conditioned minivan or bus journey to the town of Tequila, admire scenic sights of green, undulating hills before stopping to marvel at the UNESCO World Heritage-listed agave azul (blue agave) fields. Listen as your guide offers more information about the succulent agave plants and appreciate the natural splendor of the landscape.

We start our tour with the visit to the Agave fields, where we will witness a demonstration of the traditional Jima of the agave, then we continue arriving at the emblematic magical town of Tequila, where we will learn about the process of making this spirit drink at Jose Cuervo distillery. During this tour you will taste the tasty cooked agave, taste the first distillation tequila and finally enjoy this drink when it is ready for commercialization.

Then, you can enjoy our traditional gastronomy in a picturesque restaurant (included) or free time in the town of Tequila, either visiting its shops full of different brands of tequila brands in Tequila, Jalisco.

We conclude at the meeting point indicated by your tour guide and we undertake our return to Guadalajara.
